UPDATE:

As things change they also remain the same.

It has been about three years now since our small boutique Hotel has run at an occupancy of just below 70%. Three years ago we thought this was great and that things would only get better. Throughout the recession our occupancies have remained right up there. Now in retrospect we understand how good our timing was and hope that we can keep this going.

Our bookings that generally come in on a relatively

AWARDS:

October as always is a month where a lot of Hospitality Awards functions take place and we were involved with the House and Leisure Best of SA Awards and the Les Nouvelles Esthetiques Spa Awards. Both of these Awards we had been fortunate in winning before. The competition is always getting stiffer so we knew it would be tough. To our credit we ended up being a finalist in the Boutique Spa section for the Les Nouvelles Awards and for the 2nd year in a row we ended up winning the Best short lead in time, have changed as guest are staying for shorter periods of time, this has been countered by the fact that we now have more guests staying with us.

We put this down to the loyalty of many of the guests who have stayed with us and their positive feedback. As well as being fortunate enough to have been able to attract a lot of media attention, including recently being on Top Billing and the Home Channel.

Once again the year has flown past and we look forward to a busy Christmas season!

Spa in SA at the House and Leisure Magazine Awards.

Much thanks must go to all those who took the time out to vote for us as the winner is chosen by the public, so without your support the award would not have come our way.

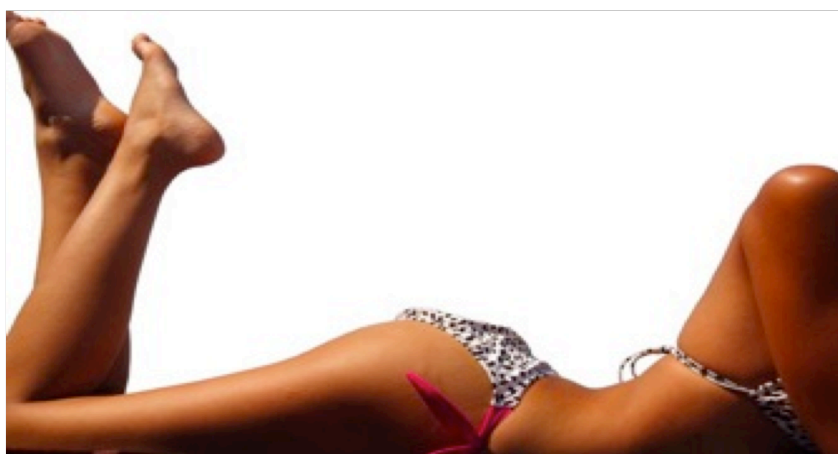

Once again KZN was finely represented as Phinda's The Homestead ended up winning Best Lodge and Hartford House won Best Restaurant.
